- Good health
- Pray for peace about the weekend
- Spiritual protection
- New relationship with Christ
- Protection for their family
- Healing of burdens
- Bonding with the team and pilgrims
- Participation in discussions
- Understanding the information presented

Team

- Pray for them by name
- Speakers to have strength and no fear
- Writing God's message for the pilgrims to hear
- Protection for families
- Servant's heart
- Wisdom and peace
- Protection for the voices of the music directors
- The weekend schedule
- Spirit of cooperation and charity
- Leadership skills
- For the clergy to have wisdom and discernment
- Much needed rest at night

Kitchen/Logistics/Agape

- Safe travels to and from the church
- Spirit of love and self-surrender
- Joyful servant heart for agape
- Kitchen staff plentiful
- Kitchen safety
- Live-in Logistics to have endurance and much needed rest at night
- God's spirit and holiness at candlelight

- Safety for all within the church
- Appropriate heat, water and facilities
- Kitchen equipment
- Audi-visual equipment

Thought for the Day

If only we knew how to look at life as God sees it, we should realize that nothing is secular in the world, but that everything contributes to the building of the Kingdom of God.

SPEAKING OF WORMS by Thelma Wells - An excerpt from "Listen Up, Honey"

Let the wise also hear and gain in learning, and the discerning acquire skill. Proverbs 1:5 (NRSV)

Someone told me an interesting story about a minister who wanted to impart some wisdom to his congregation. To illustrate his point, he dropped four worms into four separate jars. The first worm was put into a jar of alcohol. The second worm was put into a jar of cigarette smoke. The third worm was put into a jar of chocolate syrup. The fourth worm was put into a jar of good, clean soil.

At the conclusion of his sermon, the minister showed his congregation the results: the worm in alcohol was dead, the worm in cigarette smoke was dead, and the worm in chocolate syrup was dead. But the worm he had placed in good, clean soil was still alive.

"So," the minister asked, "what can we learn from this lesson?"

A little old woman in the back raised her hand and said, "As long as you drink, smoke and eat chocolate, you won't have worms?"

Listen up, honey. As long as you listen to the gentle and quiet voice of God whispering into your heart, you can bottle up those worms of worry and know that the King of kings will guide you with wisdom and love through whatever lies ahead. Connect with him. Feel his presence in your life.
